PUBLIC COMMENTS ON AGENDA AND NON-AGENDA ITEMS

Lynn Boone, Compton resident, spoke in opposition to the resolutions approved last week to revise this Body's regular meeting dates. Ms. Boone commented on the ordinances adopted in July 2009 to revise the order of regular meetings and contended that resolutions weren't effective until 30 days after their approval date. Ms. Boone also commented on the article published in the Press Telegram on January 28, 2009. Ms. Boone reprehended the article's interview with the Executive Secretary and charged it to be inaccurate and poorly written.

Chairperson Pro-Tem Arceneaux clarified that resolutions are effective immediately after approval, noting that ordinances are effective 30 days after adoption.

William Kemp, Compton resident, commented on the Executive Secretary's interview in the Press Telegram regarding the business developments in the city. Mr. Kemp went on to state that speakers should be allowed to speak on commissions regularly and questioned if the revision of regular meeting dates was an attempt to eliminate the opportunity of crime.

Benjamin Holifield, Compton resident, commented on the significance of the First African American Mayor of the City of Compton and the current Commission, in relation to Black History Month. Mr. Holifield also commented on Commissioner Jones' performance as a representative of this Body and asked that the Commission work closely with the stakeholders of the Compton community.

Joyce Kelly, Compton resident, asked that the Commission reduce their compensations for the revised regular meeting dates. Ms. Kelly commented on the advertisement of Residential Rehabilitation and First Time Homebuyers program funds and asked that the agenda booklets be made available to the members of the audience.

Alita Godwin, City Clerk, stated that agenda booklets are available in the City Clerk's Office.

#1.

Gwen Patrick, Compton resident, expressed a concern for the lighting in the 2nd District and the development of the Burlington Coat Factory. Ms. Patrick requested the status of the facade improvements along Compton Boulevard and asked that the Commission address the metal object protruding from the street at the corner of Burriss and Compton Boulevard.

Chairperson Pro-Tem Arceneaux instructed the Executive Secretary to address the protrusion of metal at Burriss and Compton Boulevard immediately.
