Commissioner Calhoun referred any complaints about the Compton School Police to the Compton Unified School Board of Trustees or School Police Chief Yuri Taylor.

Commissioner Calhoun instructed the Executive Secretary to address the renovation of the gymnasium floor at Gonzales Park.

Charles Evans, Executive Secretary, asserted that the renovations are still in progress, however personnel changes had caused a delay. Mr. Evans affirmed that the renovations would be similar to the standards at Lueders Park.

Commissioner Calhoun asked that the Executive Secretary address the allegations regarding a 501© in his name. Mr. Evans stated that the Compton Athletic Foundation was formed to work with other organizations to develop athletic and educational programs for the citizens of Compton. Mr. Evans affirmed that the foundation is not connected to the City of Compton, other than the fact that events would be held in conjunction with the City of Compton. Mr. Evans noted that he did not have 25 million dollars in the bank on behalf of this program.

Commissioner Dobson stated that any concerns about the development of any residential community should be directed to the Building and Safety Department.
