COMPTON, CA- JANUARY 28, 2010

Who: The City of Compton CareerLink in partnership with the Compton Community Redevelopment Agency (Agency).

What: The City of Compton invites all city residents interested in the construction field to come out to the City's first Apprentice Drive.

The Apprentice Drive will provide attendees with invaluable information on gaining employment in the construction-related field and provide an opportunity onsite to register with the State of California's Apprenticeship Program; a requirement to work on any licensed and bonded construction project within the State of California.

The event will also provide technical assistance to those that register with CareerLink, belong to a California Worker's Union, and need financial assistance with paying union dues. Space is limited. Reserve your space today by calling (310) 605-3076.

Cost: FREE!

When: Thursday, February 18, 2010 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Where: Compton CareerLink, 700 North Bullis Road, Auditorium, Compton, CA 90221-2209

We invite everyone interested in career opportunities within the construction field and those interested in upcoming City of Compton Community Redevelopment projects to come out and participate in the City's first Apprentice Drive. The event will be informational and provide resources for residents that can be utilized on construction projects throughout the State of California. Join us as we provide critical information to our citizens in need or interested in employment. Thank you for partnering with us as we work together toward "Birthing a New Compton".
