SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY
SHOP COMPTON
NOVEMBER 25, 2017

Compton, CA – Saturday, November 25, 2017 shop owners and cities across the United States will unite to promote shopping at small local business enterprises.

The City of Compton supports small businesses as a key part of the City's success. Small Business Saturday is celebrated on the Saturday after the Thanksgivings Holiday, and in 2017 that day is November 25th.

“Small Business Saturday” encourages residents and visitors to shop at one of the City's local small businesses to discover great products and services as a way to rally round enjoying the holidays.

SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY - SHOP COMPTON NOVEMBER 25, 2017.

Please visit the wonderful Compton restaurants and shop owners who are working to provide quality service to others. Come meet the people that own and operate great enterprises and want to know more on how to better service your product needs.

The 'Hub City' of Compton is emerging as one of the Gateway region's most dynamic shopping environments with 26 of the nation's top 100 retailers delivering quality products and services, as well as local hiring opportunities for the City's residents. On north Long Beach Boulevard, the expanding Compton Center with its new Walmart is surrounded by many great small businesses. The Compton Town Center hosts 30 businesses that have among its treasures small clothing and service stores. The Rosecrans Shopping Plaza has over 15 great stores, and the Gateway Towne Center is an unparalleled shopping experience in one easy to reach location alongside the 91 Freeway with a dozen fast and casual dining franchises.

Founded in 2010 by American Express, Small Business Saturday is a campaign to help small businesses gain more exposure during one of the biggest shopping weekends of the year. Each year, Compton businesses and shoppers join over 100 million people participating in the shopping Saturday activity between Black Friday and Cyber Monday.

Shoppers are a key part in small businesses success, and by patronizing small businesses throughout the entire year, we can really show our support for the small businesses in Compton and help make a greater impact on growing the local economy.

Mark your calendars now and plan to Shop Compton on Small Business Saturday, November 25, 2017!
