May my spouse, relative, friend or campaign manager pick up and/or file nomination documents for me or can I mail them to you?

Yes, all forms may be picked up or filed by a representative of the candidate, however; if someone other than the candidate is picking up nomination papers, they must have specific written authorization to do so. Candidates are urged to file in person. The reasons are twofold:

1. The oath of office on the Declaration of Candidacy must be administered by the City Clerk, an authorized public official, or a notary public. It is much easier for a candidate to file the nomination paper in person and have the oath administered at the time he or she files; and
2. The signature of the candidate as well as other data is required on many documents involved in the nomination process. If the nomination papers are incomplete, the problem can easily be rectified when a candidate files in person.

If the candidate wishes to mail the nomination papers, they must be sent by certified mail and arrive in the City Clerk's Office by the close of the nomination period, regardless of the postmark.

Am I required to file financial documents related to my campaign?
